Electoral Roll Causeway 1949

the first Australian to be awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, has been awarded the bar to the decoration. His mother, who resides at the Causeway, received this information by letter yesterday. Squadron Leader Sheen was formerly a messenger in the Prime Minister's Department at Canberra and was educated at Telopea Park School. In a recent letter to his mother, Squadron Leader Sheen said that he had married in England. The fighter pilot is a man of great deeds but few words. He just said that he was married...[His mother said] I'm dying to see a photograph of her and I have written asking him to tell me all about her. I hope he will soon be able to bring her out to Canberra...

Canberra Times 1943 Surprise Party. An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mrs W Sheen of Causeway on Thursday when members of her first aid squad arranged a surprise birthday party to celebrate Mrs Sheen's birthday. The musical programme included two songs by Mr Sheen and community singing by the guests. During the day news was received of Wing-Commander Des Sheen and a younger son Gordon who is serving with the AIF somewhere in Australia.
