

Hostel Camp News.

(From our Correspondent).

A most enjoyable evening was spent on Sunday at the "Hostel" Camp. The newly formed cricket club organised the euchre tournament and concert in aid of their club funds, and were very successful. The married men brought their wives and families, thus making the crowd a record for the Camp. Songs were rendered by the following: Messrs. Brown, Walker, Clarrie Smith, Fred Rydon, Vic. Smith, Fred. Irons, Billy Kelly, and Charles Culley. Other items were "Sambo" Pollard and "Mo" Gill in a comedy sketch; "Mick" Ramage and "Tiny" Pascoe in cross chatter and songs; "Nick" Carter, the great comedian; Jack Swallow, recitations; Tom Lacey, Irish songs; "Digger" Bent, recitation; "Bricky" (George) Evans, in "The Moonlight Trot"; "Tiny" Pascoe and Clarrie Smith, harmony, Alex. Rowe and "Mo" Gill, songs and recitations. All the items were ably accompanied by the "Hostel" jazz band, under the conductorship of Mr. Alex. Rowe.

Mr. A. Pilz had charge of the euchre tournament, and compliments must be paid to him for the success the tournament proved. Mr. Dodd and Mr. Walker played off, the former winning by 5 games to 3. Mrs. Irons gained the kewpie prize by only winning one game.

All present drank to the health of Mr. Long and his wife for their kindness in supplying the supper.
